A - Write in Spanish. Pay attention to the verb forms (p. 35) and adjective agreement (p.59).

1. The boys are tall.
2. The (female) doctor is blonde.
3. The (male) police officer is short.
4. Mario and José are not ugly.
5. María is good-looking and redheaded.
6. Rosa and Ana are slim and intelligent.
7. The dog is fat and lazy.
8. The cat is big and black.
9. The (female) teachers are hard-working.
10. The (male) students are funny and nice.
11. The girl’s name is Rosalinda.
12. The students are from Venezuela.
13. I am nice and good-looking.
14. You (male friend) are not serious.
15. You (female friend) are not fat.
16. You (a group) are not lazy.
17. The girls are patient and nice.
18. Ramón likes to dance and skate.
19. I don’t like to work.
20. The serious girl likes to read.
B. Translate into Spanish:

1. I am short and smart.

2. The girls are nice.

3. You all (formal) are not skinny.

4. We are brunettes.

5. Paco and Marta are funny.

6. Are you (inf.) hardworking or lazy?

7. The police officers (females) are fat.

8. Ana, Eva, and Luisa are not tall.

9. I am not strong.

10. Emilia is pretty

11. Felipe is not redheaded. He is blonde.

12. Diana has short brown hair.

13. My friends are not boring. They are interesting.